Andi Tenri Azizah

Senior Policy Analyst · Fiscal Decentralisation

tenri.azizah@email.com · +62 811 5556 2093 · Jakarta, Indonesia · linkedin.com/in/tenriazizah
ORCID 0000-0003-5556-2917

SUMMARY

Policy researcher with eleven years on fiscal decentralisation, village funds and basic services in eastern Indonesia. I design field studies, turn the evidence into briefs that ministries and local governments can act on, and teach public policy analysis to undergraduates.

EXPERIENCE

Pusat Riset Kebijakan Lontara — Jakarta
Senior Policy Analyst — Mar 2021 – Present

- Lead the fiscal decentralisation programme: 6 researchers, IDR 4.2 billion in grants and 11 studies since 2021.
- Surveyed 1,200 villages on village-fund spending; the findings fed into the 2024 revision of the allocation formula.

Universitas Tirta Kencana — Jakarta
Part-time Lecturer, Public Administration — Feb 2022 – Present

- Teach Public Policy Analysis and Research Methods to 90 students a semester; supervised 14 theses.

Yayasan Suara Desa Timur — Makassar
Research Officer — Jul 2015 – Jan 2019

- Ran household surveys in 60 villages in South and Southeast Sulawesi; trained 40 local enumerators.

EDUCATION

Australian National University — Master of Public Policy
Policy Analysis — Canberra, Australia • 2019 – 2020

Universitas Hasanuddin — Bachelor of Public Administration • GPA 3.76
Public Administration — Makassar • 2011 – 2015

PUBLICATIONS

Who captures the village fund? Evidence from 1,200 Indonesian villages — 2025
Asia-Pacific Decentralisation Review 8(2)
With M. Lubis and P. Hartley

Transfer berbasis kinerja dan mutu layanan dasar di Sulawesi — 2024
Jurnal Kebijakan Publik Nusantara 12(1)

AWARDS & GRANTS

Research grant, IDR 850 million — 2023
Nusantara Policy Research Fund

Best Paper, Public Policy Track — 2024
Indonesian Public Administration Congress

LANGUAGES

Indonesian
Native

Buginese
Native

English
Fluent (IELTS 8.0)